Mother Mentors Needed

The Childbirth and Parenting Assistance (CAPA) program of Catholic Charities Spokane, is currently looking for Doula Project volunteers to participate as mentors for young, pregnant women. A Doula supports and encourages a young parent through prenatal, birthing, and early parenting experiences. Doulas make a one-year commitment to spend 2 hours a week with their young mother. Volunteers must have hands on parenting experience, a high school education or GED, and be at least 26 years of age. Applications for Doulas are now being accepted and training will begin in September 2010.

Vacation Bible School

July 12th-16th, 9 am to Noon

There is still time to sign up for Vacation Bible School. Registration forms are available online at www.stjosephcolbert.org, and in the Parish Lobby CD's and iron-on decals are available! Please come in to the office to pick them up.

There are still a few tags left on the Supply Boat in the lobby. We also need 100 plastic water bottles with lids, sizes 16 oz to 20 oz.

We still need adult volunteers for crew supervisors, games, bible voyage, and preschool kindergarten. Youth Volunteers are needed for crew leaders and station leaders for the preschool/ kindergarten.

Please contact Mary Gilman at 448-0237 or by email mary@axodys.com for more information. God's Word is your guide and the Lord is your compass! So climb aboard for the voyage of a lifetime!

Welcome Aboard!

We are happy to announce that Shannon Sicilia has been selected from three applicants for the position of Youth Minister. Thanks to our Interview Committee, Fr. Edgar, Sr. Kathleen, Deacon Joe Schroeder, Anne Ellis, Olivia Johnstone and Sam Moeller for helping in our process of selection. Shannon is a parishioner since 2008 and will assume her position on August 15th. Congratulations on being selected as our new Youth Minister and welcome to our staff!

Used Bibles Available

St. Joseph Parish has recently purchased new bibles for the classrooms. The used bibles are now available to parishioners. They will be on a table in the lobby for the next few weeks, so if you need a bible please take one!

A Few Farewell Words from Lauren!!!!

This has been a wonderful year for me at St. Josephs. I have enjoyed teaching the teens, getting to know their parents and diving into the community life here. This year has been a true blessing. I am truly going to miss St. Josephs. Thank you to everyone who helped me during my Youth Ministry. This was one of the best experiences and I will cherish the memories of all of our youth meetings, parties, outings, service projects and retreats. The teens of this parish are wonderful young adults and they will always be in my prayers. I am so glad I got to share this year with them.

I hope everyone has a wonderful summer and may God bless all of you as you continue along your faith journey. Congratulations to Shannon Sicilia who will be your new Youth Minister. I plan on staying in touch! Please keep my family in your prayers as we move to New York State.

Many adventures await I am sure.

All the best and God Bless!

- Lauren Gravereaux

New Hope Resource Center

North County Food Bank: Cleaning your freezer? Please consider donating your older fish/meat to North County Food Bank in Elk. Protein is in short supply, and donations are welcome, even if it is a little "out of date". Contact Darlene Hansen, Director, at 292-2530.

Clothing Needed: Summer clothing would be welcome at the New Hope clothing bank. Please drop your donations in the donation bin or take them directly to New Hope.

Necessities Needed: deodorant, tampons, light bulbs, lotion, shaving cream, razors shower gel and conditioner.

Garden Fest: With the assistance of several St. Joseph volunteers, Garden Fest was again a resounding success! As a result of donations, three families also received raised garden beds. As funds are available, more beds will be built. It costs $50 to build one bed.

June 26-27 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Go, therefore, and make disciples of all people... Proclaim the Gospel to every creature.
